GERMANS MAKE LITTLE PROGRESS

FIGHTING DESPERATELY TO ADD TO SMALL GAINS AROUND ARMENTERES.

(By the Associated Press)
Having pushed back the British positions on a twenty-five mile front north and south of Armentieres to an average depth of over two miles, the Germans are struggling desperately to increase their gains. Under the brilliant British defense, however, the German advance is beginning to slow up, although the German attacks have not diminished in their intensity. Messines Ridge and Wytschaete are vital points on the battle field but the Germans in two days have not been able to reach the crest of the ridge. On the ridge's southern approach the Germans made small gains around Ploegsteert. By abandoning Armentieres the British have straightened out their line but evidently the Germans have not yet occupied the town, the German official statement reporting fighting in the suburbs. There has been no change in the situation on the Picardy battlefield.

Germans Gain Some Ground.
London, April 12.—Attacking yesterday in Ploegsteert neighborhood, the Germans pressed the British back to Neuve Eglise vicinity, says the official announcement. North of Festubert the British regained some ground by counter attacks. Between Loos and the river Lawe German attacks were repulsed. The Germans last night captured Merville but heavy fighting is still continuing there. On the remainder of the northern front there was little change.

Artillery Duel.
Paris, April 12.—Heavy artillery fighting occurred last night in Hangard En Santerre vicinity, on the front north of Mont Didier, the war office announces.

German Attacks Fail.
London, April 12.—German troops made a determined attack along Messines ridge and succeeded in gaining some ground, says a dispatch from British headquarters in France and Belgium, but the British rallied and once again drove them out by a counter attack this morning. Three attacks launched by the enemy in great waves near Neuve Chapelle were repulsed with immense losses to the Germans. The ground was strewn with their corpses.

Paris, April 12.—Germans this morning resumed bombardment of Paris with their long range guns.

More Innocent Victims of Huns.
Paris, April 12.—A shell from the long range German gun yesterday struck a foundling asylum on the city's southwestern outskirts killing one nurse, a patient and a baby. Three babies, six women patients and two probationers were injured. Another shell struck an open air bowling alley, killing a man and a boy and injuring ten.

Turks On Offensive.
London, April 12.—Turkish and German forces in Palestine on Wednesday opened an offensive, attacking the British front near the coast, the war office announces.

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS

I find much to my surprise and regret that a great many water consumers are delinquent. About the first of May, I will turn this office over to Mr. W. B. Jones and I must hand him a clean slate. Allow me to insist that those who are delinquent pay up tomorrow (Saturday) and save me the embarrassment of placing your names on the delinquent water list and also save yourself from being humiliated by having your water service discontinued.

PATRIOTIC OKLAHOMANS HAVE CORNMEAL MENUS

Norman, April 12.—Oklahomans are beginning to realize the seriousness of the food situation and patriotic citizens are asking the elimination of wheat flour entirely from their menus, according to a representative of the Food Administration who has just recently visited Garfield, Woodward and Ellis counties.

In many cases people are returning their supply of flour purchased last fall and refuse to keep any portion of it, purchasing substitutes instead. Farmers are also bringing in their wheat, and it is thought that within a very short time every bushel of wheat will be marketed and all surplus flour will be on its way to the soldiers and the allies.

The wheat prospects are reported to be the very best, except in parts of Ellis county, where the wind played havoc with the wheat in the sandy soil.

The War Savings Stamp is the solar plexus of the great mass of the American people and will make the Prussian and his militaristic system take the count.

$850,000.

(By the Associated Press)
Sulphur, Okla., April 12.—Fire which started shortly after midnight, destroyed half of the business block on Second street between Muskogee and Vinita, entailing a property loss of $850,000, according to local officials. Poor fire insurance in one of the buildings is given as the cause of the fire. About half the loss is said to be covered by insurance.

WHEAT IS NOW VITAL QUESTION

Oklahoma Farmers Must Sell Surplus
Wheat and Uphold Front Battle Line.

Herbert Hoover has emphasized the absolute necessity of marketing every bushel of wheat in Oklahoma in excess of the quantity needed for seed wheat at once. He has sent out a war call to all farmers in Oklahoma to bring their wheat to market so that the soldiers and civilian populations of England and France will not go hungry and lose the war.

Test of Patriotism.
Farmers are urged in the true spirit of patriotism not to hold wheat that is so badly needed. Any person who now holds wheat in excess of seed is classed as unpatriotic because such hoarding is giving aid and comfort to the enemy.

Home Guards Get Busy.
In one county in Oklahoma the County Food Administrator made a personal call on all persons having wheat in excess of seed for next year. He was accompanied by a representative of the elevator men who notified the farmers that the elevators could handle all the wheat brought to market. Twenty-five home guards also went along and convinced the farmers that anyone hoarding wheat was a slacker and that such marks of disloyalty would not be permitted to escape unpunished. Feeding of wheat to animals was put on the list of previous crimes, and prompt punishment was declared to await anyone so offending.

Proper Results Obtained.
In this particular county magnificent results were obtained. In practically every instance the hoarders of wheat saw the necessity of marketing their wheat. Those that failed to respond at first, soon got into line.

TOTAL OF BOND SALES CLIMBING

FAR ABOVE QUOTA BUT CAM-PAIGN ENDS ONLY WHEN ALL
HAVE HAD CHANCE TO BUY

Pontotoc county is climbing still higher over the top in the Liberty Loan campaign. At 2 o'clock today the total subscribed was $460,500, and several other districts had sent in reports which headquarters had not found time to enter on the record at press time. Of the amount above subscriptions taken Ada totaled $159,250.

The campaign is not yet finished, for there are still a few who have not subscribed and even though the county has more than raised its quota, there is no reason why one man should subscribe and another be passed up, hence the campaign will be pushed to the limit.

Farmers and business men alike have left their regular work and devoted all their time to the campaign, a fact accounting for the splendid showing made.

In Elm Flat district Prof. Flowers dismissed his school and took up the bond campaign. Every family in the district bought one or more bonds.

OSAGE LEASES WILL BE SOLD MAY 18

(By the Associated Press)
Washington, April 12.—To permit time for more extensive advertising, the sale of the big block of Osage oil bearing lands in Oklahoma was postponed to May 18. The general policy of stimulating oil production to meet the increased demand for war purposes is being initiated by the government. The increase must come from oil bearing lands in Wyoming, Okla., and other western states.

This is one year when candidates will have a rough road to travel. The war is the main business of the American people and nobody is going to worry much about the woes of the candidates.

A bulletin being sent out from Chicago charged the farmers of that district with being slackers in the Liberty Loan campaign. They should get a few from Pontotoc county to show the farmers of that section the way they do things in Oklahoma.

The Mexican revolutionists break into print occasionally but they no longer occupy much front page space. As long as they keep on their own side of the boundary Americans will not worry about them much, and the policy of American troops to return all shots with good interest when the greasers fire on them has had a cooling effect.

The armistice between Germany and Russia was signed under an agreement that the peace negotiations which were to follow should be on a basis of no annexations and no indemnities. However, the Russians were finally forced to sign terms providing for the giving up of all the conquered part of their country and to pay an indemnity of some two or three billion dollars. Also we read of German troops still advancing in various parts of Russia. It caused one to wonder what the German idea of peace is, anyway.

A Toast to 'Wilson.'
George Buchanan Fife, writing in The Red Cross Magazine for May, tells of the royal welcome afforded the American Red Cross Ambulance train on its trip from Paris to Milan. "One evening," he says, "while dinner was on, the door opened and an Italian sergeant entered with a swagger. By this time the shop had quite filled with soldiers and the gilded youth of the place and the section was under a fire of inspection and comment. When the sergeant entered there was a momentary lull, owing to his obvious importance, but no sooner had the news of whom we were being imparted to him than he ordered a bottle of wine and, filling a glass stride over to the tables.

WE HAVE MOVED from our former location, on East Main, to the Ephraim stand at 107 West Main, having purchased the Ephraim stock and combined it with ours.

When the stocks are rearranged and straightened up, we will have not only one of the best appearing stores in Southern Oklahoma, but also one of the largest stocks of Clothing and Gents' Furnishings.

Our new location is one of the handsomest store rooms in Ada, and is equipped with many conveniences which are at the command of our friends and customers.

We will be ready for business Saturday morning and cordially invite one and all to visit us.

Drummond & Alderson THE MAN'S STORE

Lifting both glass and bottle high above his head, he rose on tiptoe and, in a voice like the Bull of Bashan, roared, 'Wilson, Wilson! President Wilson!' and then drained the glass at a gulp.

"He got a reception for that which sounded as if the shop were being torn down, whereupon he roared 'Wilson!' all the louder and insisted on filling all the glasses he could reach. When an offer was made to engage him in conversation, it was explained that 'Wilson' was the only English word the sergeant knew, but that he was inordinately proud of it, and that if we would let him shout it every now and then he would be quite content. So the dinner went on, with the cry ringing out at un-expected intervals and a wide, unfading smile on the face of the sergeant."

FOOD BULLETIN

To School District Food Administrators and Merchants:

Following a custom of many years standing in this county, many citizens purchased quantities of flour last fall to run them for six or twelve months. Their motives were good and they did not make these purchases to hoard flour or to enable them to eat flour when their neighbors had none. But under the new rulings of the food administration each person is asked to use only 1-2 pounds of flour per week or 5 pounds per month per person. Where citizens have more than their share allotted by the government to last them until August 15th, they are asked to return this flour to their grocer in order that it may be redistributed on the market. You can easily figure each family's allotment thus: Each person is entitled to 6 pounds per month from now until August 15th, or about 24 pounds in all. A farmer having 5 members in his family would be entitled to keep 5x24 or 120 pounds in all. In towns only a 30-day supply is allowed. Each family can figure out its own allowance and stay within it. Many individuals who found that they had excess amounts on hand are returning this. They feel no embarrassment in returning this, but on the contrary, they realize they are doing a patriotic duty. They are to be commended for this.

The grocers of Pontotoc county are asked to co-operate in this move: They are to re-purchase all flour brought back if it is in good condition and in Original Packages. In a number of counties in Oklahoma, large quantities of flour are being returned and placed on the market. We are told that the wheat shortage will be serious until August 15th, when the new crop is harvested. Our allies are in dire need of hundreds of thousands of bushels of wheat which we have promised and have not sent. The bread ration of the French soldiers were cut down recently because they did not have the wheat.

I have had a number of inquiries about a malicious report started by some person to the effect that the food administration intended to search homes to ascertain the food supplies on hands. This report is absolutely false. Only in extreme cases of unlawful hoarding will any action be taken. I shall rely largely on the patriotic spirit of the people backed by loyal public sentiment in the community to get results. The rule is still in effect that only 24 pounds purchases of flour can be made by parties living in town and 49 pounds by parties living in the country.

I am asking each merchant to notify the food administrator in his town weekly of the amount of flour returned so that a report may be made for my files.

Please give full publicity in your school district.

Yours truly,
OREL BUSBY,
Federal Food Administrator Pontotoc County.

MORE THAN THOUSAND SHIPS ADDED IN YEAR.

Chicago, April 12.—Since April 6, 1917, the day on which war was declared on Germany, there have been added to the United States navy 1,276 vessels aggregating 1,055,116 tons, Secretary of the Navy Daniels declared tonight in an address before the national chamber of commerce.

"In addition to the battle cruisers, dreadnaughts and scout cruisers authorized, some building and others deferred temporarily for the more pressing construction of ships to transport soldiers and munitions and supplies," he said, "we are now building of what is technically known as smaller craft of from 65 to 1,215 tons each, 794 vessels vessels with an aggregate tonnage of 420,217 tons.

"We are now working day and night in government and in private plants on the construction of more destroyers than were in all the allied navies when war began and every possible facility is being created to construct additional fighting craft which can be effective against the submarine still-to-be warfare of assassination and murder."

Mr. Daniels then turned to the efforts being made to increase the merchant marine, declaring that the supreme need of the hour is for ships to carry millions of soldiers to France. He pointed out that today there are 390 vessels under the American control with a tonnage of 2,762,605 and that in addition 471,900 tons of Dutch ships would soon be put into the service.

How Dead Men Heid the Hun.

Many soldiers who fought through the battles and retreat at Mons say that angels saved them from annihilation. The following is the story, as told in the April Woman's Home Companion, of a Scot whose two brothers had just been killed in the red horror:

"It was in the twilight when I came to full grief for my brothers. We were marching, drooping like tired beasts. Once some German snipers shot at us and killed the man just behind me. I fell to thinking what if that had been me, and how would my mother fare, wi' all three of her sons gone? I began to wish for my own life, then, for my mother's sake.

"That twilight was full of terrors. Germans everywhere, and if not Germans, then fear and wonder and distress. I could see men falling down—struck, who knew how? No one dared stop to see if it were a bullet, or just sleep that overcame them. And it seemed to me as if the Germans were sweeping on us like a tide. I heard myself crying on my elder brother Dougal, and crying on my mother, too.

"Then all suddenly I found myself walking backward, and looking—looking into the dark. Against the sky behind I felt there was something. I looked—and then the blackness shaped itself into dim figures. Men have said that it was the angels helping us that night against the Germans. It may have been, but that is not what I saw. Those who helped us appeared to my eyes like the men that had fallen on our side in the battle of Mons. They had fallen because we were outnumbered and unprepared. They had died too soon before all their work for their country was done. And now they had risen in the dark to hold back the Germans. That they fought with weapons I do not believe, but that they were helping us, I know.

"Dougal!" I cried. "Alek!" "And though I couldn't see them, I knew my brothers were there, guarding me. They couldn't go back to my mother again, but they would protect me, for her sake.

"Do you see?" I said to the corporal. "He saw nothing, but he listened; and he said he could hear the Germans shouting. I heard them, too: cries of surprise, and fear. The corporal thought they were the shouts of victory, but I knew who the victors were. I was filled wi' a great peace, like the sense of rest after pain. It is not defeat when men come back from the dead to help."

GERMAN SHELL PIERCES SAMMIES' SOUP KETTLE

With the American Army on the Lorraine Front, March 13.—(By Mail)—There's a certain cross-roads back of a certain sector on the American front that the Germans take a particular delight in shelling. Near the cross-roads there is a dug-out. Men working nearby live there. Just at supper time on a recent evening the Boche began shelling the road. The men were in the dug-out. They heard a shell coming. Then it arrived. It came straight through the door and went smack through the soup kettle.

"Nobody hurt, but, hell, look at the soup!" was the report of the sergeant a few minutes later.

"That's one boy that certainly came in without knocking," he added as he surveyed the soup-sodden floor.

NOT MANY GERMANS RESIDE IN ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, April 12.—St. Louis has a smaller per centage of German born residents than many other cities of the United States, despite a prevailing opinion to the contrary, according to statistics compiled by the Chamber of Commerce.

Instead of "the most German city" in America the Chamber of Commerce calls it "the most American city in the country."

According to the figures St. Louis foreign born comprise only 18 per cent of the population as compared with 38 per cent in Detroit; 34 in Cleveland, 35 in Chicago and 35 in Boston.

The per centage of German born in St. Louis is 6.9, Chicago 8, Cleveland 7, Detroit 8, Milwaukee 17, Buffalo 10 and Cincinnati 7.

DR. WILEY SUGGESTS ELECTRIC FAN FOR BABY

This authority on food and health, discussing, in Good Housekeeping, means for reducing infant mortality, said:

"... the fan is an excellent apparatus for mitigating the suffering from heat. Air in motion carries away rapidly from the body, heat that it absorbs or that is radiated into it. No cooling process of this kind can diminish the natural warmth of the body, but it can minimize the discomfort that the infant must endure from stagnant air. It is well that the current of the fan be not directly on the infant's body, but over it or to one side."

The Mothers of Our Soldiers.

Richardson Wright gives some timely advice in The Red Cross Magazine for May.

"We must," he tells them, "steel ourselves to accept the tragedies of war. We must be mentally ready—trained to receive blows and to 'come back.' You can 'come back' if you are willing to train. A boxer trains for a fight, a runner for a race, why not you, mothers and fathers, for the spiritual conflicts which are surely coming to pass?"

"Do not think that you can hastily acquire a stoicism to meet a desperate emergency. On the other hand, do not be constantly expecting a blow. Worry will no more prevent its coming than worrying will stop a bullet in its course. Instead, go about your day with an air of determination, assurance and cheer.

"Keep yourself in the best possible health. The strong body will help maintain the strong mind. Do not overdo war activities. Have other interests—go to the theatre now and then; drop into a 'movie'; eat out at a restaurant or a friend's house once in a while.

"Always carry your head high. You have a right to your pride. Besides, carrying your head high will make you walk correctly, and walking correctly is good for one's figure!"

"I also think that the well-held head indicates the well-held spirit—a soul reserve, calm, observant, sure of itself. In this public life, you will also find it in private. You will be a Spartan mother."

IT'S WONDERFUL TO FEEL WELL, SHE SAYS

MRS. GRIFFIN DECLARES SHE OWES HEALTH TO TANLAC.
GAINS SIX POUNDS.

"For more than a year before I began taking Tanlac, I had to hire someone to help me with my work," said Mrs. Lena Griffin, who resides near Fort Sam Houston, at San Antonio, Tex., recently.

"When I began taking Tanlac," Mrs. Griffin continued, "my system seemed to be all run down. My back, hips and legs hurt me so I could hardly stand up. I had no appetite, couldn't eat much of anything, and of course got very weak and thin. I also had continual pain in my right side, supposed to be caused by appendicitis and was operated on but kept suffering the same way. My nerves were simply shattered to pieces, I had awful headaches and was almost a complete physical wreck. My strength was gone, I felt tired and worn-out all the time and was unable to do my work.

"But I have let my help go since I began taking Tanlac. It is really wonderful the way it has built me up. Why, do you know I'm getting fat. I have already gained six pounds, am strong enough to do all my own work and have just started on my second bottle of Tanlac. I can get around now without any aches and pains and actually feel better than I have in years. It certainly is wonderful to feel well like I do now all the time and I'm glad to have the privilege of making this statement because I believe it will be the cause of others getting relief."

Tanlac is sold in Ada by Gwin & Mays Drug Company, and by leading druggists and dealers everywhere.

Eggs Sell for $5 Each.

(By the Associated Press)

Paris, April 12.—Eggs are $5 each in the occupied portion of northeastern France, according to Eugene Motte, former Mayor of Roubaix, who has just returned from that area. Meat is $4 a pound when it is obtainable at all. "The Germans have carried off all supplies and every movable piece of machinery," he says. "The German arrogance, which had decreased, has again become more pronounced since the German successes against the Russian Bolsheviks. In spite of everything, however, the morale of the Belgian and French inhabitants continue good, and their ardent patriotism, courage and confidence have never faltered."

The bridge north of Francis, across the Canadian river now practically assured and the contract will probably be let this week. This will mean many things for this section and the Francis citizens are rejoicing that this location was made by the State Engineers.—Francis Wigwam.

MANNING NEW

Kansas City, Mo., April 12.—In order to man the new fleets that are rapidly going into the water to put American armies in France and keep them supplied, the navy has issued a call for thousands of additional men immediately, according to Lieut. R. B. Campbell, recruiting officer of the Kansas City Navy Recruiting District.

"America's success or failure in the war depends upon the nation's ability to send armies to France and keep them supplied with war materials," Lieut. Campbell said. "It is the Navy's job to transport these troops and see that the material gets to them. To do that requires a strong navy—the strongest in the world.

"At the present time the navy is open to practically all classes of skilled men. Unskilled men may enlist as apprentice or landsmen and be trained in one of the Navy schools to fill important technical positions aboard ship."

The navy has made arrangements for every postmaster to act as recruiting officer and applicants for enlistment in the navy may apply to the postmaster in their home town who has authority to forward their applications to the Recruiting Office in Kansas City and if the man is acceptable, transportation will be furnished him from his home town to Kansas City.

RUSHING MORE TROOPS ACROSS THE WATER.

Washington, April 12.—With the news that American troops now are in the battle zone, the blunt statement of David Lloyd George, the British premier, to parliament as to the situation in Picardy came home to Americans today with added force. Army officers expressed satisfaction that the reinforcements ordered into the fight by President Wilson had begun to arrive, for the British premier had left no room for doubt that the need for them is urgent.

Behind that advance guard other American forces are moving rapidly to the front. Figures may not be disclosed, but it is known definitely that the rate of departure of American troops for France is now three times that of only a short time ago.

Roff has one little patriot of whom we should be proud. Dorothy Turner has raised a splendid war garden this spring from the seed mailed out by the government to her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Turner, and has sold enough from this garden to buy ten Thrift Stamps and says by the end of this week she will have sold enough to finish filling her Thrift Stamp book and will then exchange it for a war stamp certificate.

Besides this, she has a $50.00 Liberty Bond purchased with the money which has been given her on her birthdays and as Christmas gifts. She still has $26.00 in the bank that she has saved from money given her and some she earned picking cotton last fall and expects to invest it in War Stamps in the near future. This little girl is only eleven years old.—Roff Eagle.

Tattooing is forbidden in Japan. A teacher of Idzumi explained the law to his pupil and told how tattooing was done. Next day four of his scholars appeared liberally adorned with the forbidden art.

Massachusetts officials estimate that the number of women works in that state has increased by nearly 10,000 since the beginning of the war.

ROGER Q. MILLS GAINS 12 POUNDS IN TWENTY DAYS

Young Soldier of Camp Bowie Says
"You Can't Beat Pep Systemic Pills as a Flesh Builder."

"I was for a long time all run down and physically unable to do a real man's work," says Roger Q. Mills, now of Camp Bowie. "I was thin, bloodless and lacking the 'Pep' of a young man of my years. I wanted to join the army and help shoulder the responsibility that I felt I was duty bound to do, but after I got in I saw I would have to start in and take something that would aid me to accomplish my purpose.

"Now, this thing of joining the army is about the best thing a young fellow can do, but it is a 'real' man's work, and I scouted around for a tonic that would go to the root of all my troubles, which were constipation and a poor blood supply, and relieve me of distressing after-meal effects and help me to take on a little flesh, that would enable me to 'jump in' and prove efficient in my new duties.

"It was fortunate that I was acquainted with one of the representatives of the Pep Chemical Co., and after taking with him he GAVE me a bottle of PEP SYSTEMIC PILLS and urged me to try them. Here is what he promised: They will relieve you of constipation, furnish you with pure, rich blood, restore nerve energy provide sweet sleep, and increase your weight from five to twelve pounds. It seems a miracle that all of this has come to pass and more so, when I gained the maximum weight he said was possible to gain.

"I have heartily indorsed Pep Systemic Pills to my friends at the camp and now want the public at large to know that these Pep Systemic Pills can do the same for them." (Signed) ROGER Q. MILLS.

Poor Landlord.

Paris, April 12.—The remarkable inequalities resulting from the French moratorium on rents, which has been in effect ever since the war, is seen in a case which has come up in the courts here. An aged Frenchman, whose only source of income was a large house, rented it just before the war to a tenant who was mobilized and is still serving. Consequently he is not obliged to pay rent. His wife meanwhile is occupying the house, which she sub-lets to a number of weekly tenants at a good price. The poor landlord, deprived of his only source of revenue, lives on monies which he borrows at a high rate of interest, the lender being the tenant's wife. He is trying to obtain some adjustment of his borrowings through the French courts.

PRINCESS THEATRE

"Just From College"

"Don't Lose Your Coat", in 5 parts. Featuring Broadway Stars

show a Father Feels Toward His Son Richard Wright, in "Letters To Mother" is not the only one to pity who needs a helping hand to bear his sorrows he: "The going of their sons has worked a great transformation among fathers. They look ahead, just as you look ahead, fearful of the outcome. The man child who bears their name is at the front. Here is pride for soul Here is also dread and anxiety and speechless horror. "For a man looks on a son as an artist looks on the statue or the painting that his hands have created. He is the embodiment of his dreams, his wealth, his playmate, his scholar, his tutor, his available future. The mistakes he has made he shall rectify in his boy. The weakness to which he has succumbed, his boy shall conquer. To a father his son is his second chance, his beginning again, his hope of eternal salvation. So long as he has that boy he is immeasurably rich and his future is safe. When he loses him, he loses his immortality in the flesh."
